

AHTNAMAS FAMILY

Wishing you
a very jolly holiday!

This year we are so grateful for your friendship, love and that sweet orange,
cranberry, chocolate, pistachio pie!
Yummy, Yummy, Yummy! More please!

The Ahtnamas hearts are filled with love and gratitude! The year has went by so quickly once again. Sorry we never came by to see ya! To be honest I'm not a fan of the color you painted your living room sitting in it last time really made my eyes hurt. Ahhh just had a flashback, it's just blahhh. When you're ready to paint I'll send over Ann she did a Sip and Paint a few months ago and I think she has a real talent for painting! We've had a busy year, here's what the kids have been upto. Happy Holidays and air kisses to your tropical fishes. They are so beautiful!

Love,

Ahtnamas Family

Thomas

Our Shining Star

My first baby and future star Youtuber. Can you believe he already has 14 followers! I tell him keep at, Jesus only had 12 followers so he's doing something right!

Nam

Social Justice Butterfly
(2nd child)

Peace, justice and love is what this girl wants for all. I tell her "Baby nobody really wants that" she doesn't listen she's a rebel. She kinda reminds me of you!

Ann

Corporate tiger hidden fun person

Our Annie what can I say, she's still sweet as a button climbing that corporate ladder. I just hope she doesn't get hurt she keeps telling me about this glass ceiling. Can you believe she's been there 5 years!

Masatha

Coding like there's no
tomorrow

The baby she's our little nerd bird. She's hoping around in coding classes, bootcamps she's like those little magpies. She's sticking to it as long as it keeps her distracted from the you know what.
