

FROM OUR FAMILY TO YOURS,

Merry Christmas

We hope your holidays are filled with laughter & love.

We want to share what's been happening in the Nueue-Biski Household.

This year, our girlies became distinguished ladies. The grey in their coats really started to come in, and our long walks have turned more into leisurely strolls. Gracie, and Mabel still get excited to see us when we walk through the door, even if we've only been gone but 5 minutes. We know our holiday letters tend to only discuss our little lasses, but they are the children we never had.

That being said, we thought now would be a good time to mention that Margaux took up knitting last year and has created blossomed so much to create some masterpiece sweaters. Honestly, you could see these at Eddie Bauer. The girlies have their own outfits as well. It's the most adorable thing ever. We know Gracie is a fan but Mabel seems to acquiesce only because of all the extra love she receives.

Dominique has been planning out a vacation to Europe and is attempting to learn 2 languages, just in time for the trip. For some reason, she keeps learning profanity first - saying "profanity is international and important conversation. While Margaux is hesitant, putain, she agrees. If you disagree, Geh zum Teufel

LOOKING FORWARD TO SEEING YOU IN THE NEW YEAR, THE NUEUE-BISKI FAMILY.
