

MERRY CHRISTMAS, EVERYBODY

It's Big John Calloway, here. Along with Jennifer, big twins John Jr. And Jennifer Jr., little twins Jeffery and Joanna and last, but not least, our newest additions, our triplet girls, who are 10 days old today. They are little bundles of joy and all are very healthy, weighing in at 7, 8, and 9 pounds, respectively. Giving birth to the triplets really wore Jenn out. We ran out of "J" names, so we named them January, June, and July. The three of them are already answering to their names.

The Little Mrs., Jenn, is usually in charge of doing these letters, but this year it's all on me. Poor Jenn really has her hands full taking care of the triplets and being back at work full time. We had hoped she would be able to stay home for a full 2 weeks, but bill collectors don't wait, do they? The other kids help out, though. Even though Jeffery and Joanna are only 2, they can change a mean diaper. And at 3 and a half, Little John and Little Jenn can already cook. They use the microwave to heat up hot dogs, make cup-o-noodles, and their daily favorite, chili-cheese flavored popcorn. That's the Calloway-way!

My band just finished our 17th CD---and you know what they say---the 17th one is the charm. We're sure this one will take off and get us that Grammy we've been chasing. There's still time for you to get in on the ground floor of our success. Just call me within 24 hours to find out how. If the cell phone is disconnected, email me.

Jenn and I are doing just great. There may already be another bun in the oven---if you know what I mean. (heh-heh) And we are so proud of all the kids---they all help out and do their part. Team work makes the dream work---that's just a little something I made up. That's the Calloway-way! So we hope to see you soon and let us know how things are with you.

We sure hope your family is doing as good as we are. Living the Calloway-way!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS...from THE CALLOWAYS!
