

Dear Greatest, Best Donors in the world, oh and family, friends, in-laws and outlaws
(Remember, if you need a Get-Out-Jail-Free card, I can put a pardon in your stocking for the right amount of $$$$$$$$$)

Mel and I had a helluva year. One thing, we became “swingers.” Or at least we spent a lot of time in swing states talking to the very best people. Although Mel wasn’t usually around. She stayed in Florida, so she was probs playing pickleball.

I felt like Jesus with all the persecution going on. Can’t someone send money to their porn star mistress without the DA getting all huffy about it????

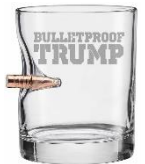

As you might imagine, the Supremes are my favorite group. Group of toadies, that is. I’m talkin’ about the Supreme Court and the hard right majority that does my bidding. Mmmm, that’s some good court packing, right? Especially after they essentially said a President can do anything he wants, which I will.

I gave some great speeches in 2024, really the best speeches. Like the one where I pointed out that Arnold Palmer was “all man.” When he took showers with other pros, they came out of there and said, “Oh my God, that’s unbelievable.”*

And I’m a historical genius. So many mistakes were made ahead of the Civil War. I think could have negotiated this conflict, to be honest with you. All the people died. So many people died.*

Silence of the lamb! The late great Hannibal Lecter. He is a wonderful man.*

Oh, and I’m superhuman. I even survived an assassination attempt in July. Hidin’ Biden never had to deal with that! I came out of it fabulously, just a small piercing in my ear. Now I’m cool, like the kids!

But best of all, I’m baaaaackk, so let’s make Christmas great again. See you in January!!!!

DJ & Mel

All merch is available for sale, buy baby buy!

Of course I said this, I’m a very stable genius!!!*