

Hey guys!

What's up, it's Ash! I know it's been a minute. Some of you have been like "Hey Ash, where you been" or "Ash, are you okay?" or "Man, I haven't seen or heard from Ash since 2018, what's going on?" Well, I'm taking this holiday season to address your panicked emails, texts and Facebook messages to say just one word....SkinRenew.

Now if you remember anything about me, you know I've got flawless skin. I've kept it pretty tight in that department, but you know what I definitely let slide...a sense of general purpose in life and goals for the afterlife. That's been the spiritual rosacea I've been saddled with for years.

Then, I found SkinRenew.

What is SkinRenew? Well, I'll tell you what it's not. It's not like the protein powders, maxi dresses, subscription pants, essential oils or essential protein maxi pants that I used to peddle. No no. Those experiences just made me money. But for all that money (that I just reinvested back into said oils and pants anyway), I never got any spiritual fulfillment out of it. And isn't that what glamour-preneurship is all about?!

"The results speak for themselves," as our founder Jim Von Jim always says. And I'd (he'd) like to think this applies not only to SkinRenew, but life after SkinRenew...removing subcutaneous blemishes better than anything else out there on the market, religion or Revlon. And yeah, most people say, "I don't really see a difference at all." But that kinda proves the whole thing...most people CAN'T see the change, but YOU know it's there. And that's all that matters.

I know what you're thinking, "SkinRenew? Isn't that that pyramid scheme that's also a cult that they talked about on that podcast?" Well, I'm here to tell you they've gotten it all wrong. SkinRenew is multi-level spiritual commerce-tainment, which is totally and legally different from both a pyramid scheme and a cult. Also podcasts aren't news. Also Jim says your phone beams lies into your brain and those lies cause cancer and crepey skin, just so you know.

Well that about wraps 'er all up! Hope you and your family have a blessed holiday, and as for me, I'm doing great. Clear eyed, on the straight-and-narrow, and only 267 tubes of SkinRenew away from Financial Solvutainablility Level 1. I'm so close to my goal! Then, my APR on inventory credit goes down to 33% AND I get my own moon. A friggin' moon, guys!

We've got a holiday sale going on right now - buy one get one free on our vitamin G ointment, and 10% off your required DedicationTenure to reach Level 4. What's DedicationTenure, you ask? Well, that's a topic for next Christmas.

Reneuvably yours (and legally Jim Von Jim's),
Ashleigh
